

DFA 127 automatic swing door

The new swing door operator for all applications, smart and easy to install, simple to adapt, whisper-silent, compact, self-monitoring operation.

Technical Data
Dimensions of operator L x H x D	600 x 85 x 124 mm
Weight of operator max.	approx. 12 kg
Door closer range	Covers the EN 4 to EN 6 range for standard and sliding arm
Operating opening speed	3 – 20 s
Operating closing speed	5 – 20 s
Opening angle	70 – 115°
Electrical connections	230 V / 50/60 Hz
Linkage	- Standard arm pushing - Sliding arm pulling
Assembly option	DIN left / right for lintel assembly (lintel up to 330 mm for standard arm only)
Operator housing	stainless steel

Standard model consist of:

- Pre-assembled swing door operator with basic accessories, with BDI at side panel, factory settings included
- Standard or sliding arm

Special features

- Microprocessor-controlled swing door drive, with many safety features (safety stop, automatic reverse etc)
- Without electricity, the DFA functions as a regular door closer.

Optional accessories

- Function switch BDE-D, BDE-M (with appliance lock)
- Key operated contacts (SSK)
- Range of trigger devices and security sensors
- Emergency cut-off switch
- Integrated cable guides
- LON 16 communication module for integration into local building management systems
- Linkage extension

Basic functions

- Automatic operation
- One way traffic
- Continuously open
- Manual control
- Locking device
- Operation lock
- Automatic reverse

Optional functions

- Interlock control (2x DFA)
- Emergency cut-out function
- Remote control and surveillance
- Master / Slave application
- Fire monitoring
- Remote control and surveillance with record ADM^{pro}

Upgradeable to ...

Master / Slave

Suitable for:

All public domains, especially indoors e.g:

- for the physically challenged in flats, hospitals and old people's homes
- for pedestrian traffic in public buildings
- in administrative and office buildings
- buildings with public access
- restaurants and hotels

Benefits to the customer:

Convenience at a reasonable price... a compact automatic door, easy to fit and operate

record

whisper-silent, reliable, long-lasting technology